Hey dad, could we (Along with my brothers) work on disassembling the ductwork in the attic and moving the shelves in the circle room out to the attic this Sunday? Could we also review the door selection that I sent to you? You said you wanted to review it with me but we have not for a while now.

Hi Luke,

Not this Sunday - you, Peter, and Jonathan need to spend this weekend preparing for final exams next week. Also, Sunday just so happens to be another day, special to some, maybe not to others... (hint - Sunday is "Father's Day"). I will help you with your Eagle Project and we can work on making door recommendations, but you have some other things you can do right now (including talking to Aaron Christian about running a spaghetti dinner fundraiser).

~ Dad
