Hello -

I heard Luke asked you both if you could help out on Tuesday evening with Luke's Eagle Scout project at the American Legion - unfortunately we had a major car problem (blown tire) and so we weren't able to make it on Tuesday. However, this weekend we're re-trying the project, and we're planning to have our whole family help out. Luke and the younger two kids will be selling candy bars to raise money at Lowes just around the corner with Sarah, and meanwhile myself, Peter, Jonathan, and Benjamin will all be working on clearing things up in the attic at the Legion, filling the dumpster, and loading other junk into contractor clean up bags to bring down to the dumpster later on (we can't fill the dumpster entirely until Tuesday nights, since the dumpster gets picked up on Wednesdays).

If either/both of you are available this weekend for any amount of time, we would love to have whatever help you can provide. I am planning to be at the American Legion by 9am, and work for pretty much the whole day. Please let us know if you're able to help us out at all on Saturday - thanks!

~ David
