Eagle Scout Letter of Recommendation

An Eagle Scout candidate must demonstrate that he lives by the principles of the Scout Oath, and Law in his daily life. In this regard, the candidate has indicated that you know him personally, and that you would be willing to provide a letter of recommendation on his behalf. On the reverse side of this letter, there is a copy of the Scout Oath and Law for your reference in preparing the letter. Please note that the contents of the letter will NOT be shown to or discussed with the candidate, nor with anyone not a member of the Eagle Scout Board of Review. You are free to discuss the information with the candidate and provide him a copy of your letter, but only if you choose to do so.

Eagle Candidate's Name: Luke A. Killeffer Your relationship: Family

Length of time you have known the candidate: Life!

Dear Eagle Board of Review:

It's my privilege to write this letter of recommendation for my grandson, Luke Killeffer, on his candidacy for Eagle Scout. Luke comes from an intact, healthy family and is the oldest of 6 children. As such, he has served as an example to his siblings and has been always willing to help others in need. Luke attends church on a regular basis and takes his duty to God seriously.

Luke has always been trustworthy and loyal in his relations that I know of. He displays courtesy and friendliness to others. Luke demonstrates kindness and caring for younger children and animals routinely. To the best of my knowledge, Luke has no problem with authority figures and has been obedient as expected. Luke's father has inculcated thriftiness in every member of the family.

Luke has sought to obey the Scout Law in his daily living. He has never turned down requests for help and hasn't presented or caused any
